Date: November 17, 2018

The following is a voluntary statement provided by Mr MARK A. ANGRISANO. He resides at [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. His phone number is [REDACTED]. He is [REDACTED] years of age, and his date of birth is [REDACTED].

I, Mark A. Angrisano, state that on Sunday, November 4th, 2018, I enjoyed a meal at the Lake Effect Diner on Main Street as I had done several previous times. I knew that the owner of the Lake Effect Diner was the same owner of The Steer restaurant, and Doug's Dive, when it was open on the waterfront. I have patronized all three eating establishment on many occasions and kept going back because the food was exceptionally good and the service was equally good. So when I saw that there was a Lake Effect Ice Cream store on Hertel, not too far from the Lake Effect Diner, I kind of suspected that it was under the same ownership as the other restaurants.

So, when I was at the Lake Effect Diner a week ago Sunday, I had to ask Sergio, the Manager of the Lake Effect Diner, if the Lake Effect Ice Cream parlor on Hertel was a sister company and inquire as to how it was doing. Sergio told me that the Lake Effect Artisan Ice Cream store had no connection with his Diner or any of the other businesses owned by Mr Curtin. I told him that I was a bit surprised... with the name being Lake Effect. And that is when the Manager told me that people often think that the two businesses are owned by Mr Curtin. As a matter of fact, he asked if I would give him my name and phone number because of this confusion, he said someone may call me and ask about my misconception of the ownership of the two businesses. I agreed, provided him with my name and phone number, and on Saturday, November 17th, I was interviewed by an investigator who asked me about my experience at the Lake Effect Diner. And as a result of that interview I have given this affidavit.
